Programme Highlights

Since Dec. 2010, The Minor Works Control System (“MWCS”) has been introduced to the Buildings Ordinance (BO) to control the carrying out of minor works. Apart from the prevailing system under which prior approval and consent of the Building Authority have to be sought for carrying out building works, a set of simplified prescribed requirements is added to the BO and new regulations.

Since the implementation of the MWCS, Building Authority have reviewed, fine-tuned and added some new minor works in response to the public. In this seminar, the honorable speaker will share his valuable experience on the application procedure, updates and common problems facing MWCS.
