

CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT AWARDS 2022

AWARD BRIEFING SESSION

The HKICM would like to invite all individuals and construction teams to attend our Construction Management Awards [CMA] 2022 Briefing Session. Award categories and judging process will be given at the briefing session. This year two new award categories will be featured which are Large Scale Project and Medium Scale Project, both of which will recognize additional developments in the industry that the CMA previously did not include.

Also, we have the honor of welcoming Ms YU Po Mei, Clarice, JP (Director of Buildings, Buildings Department), as our head juror to share more about the criteria behind the selection of the CMA winners.

Join the Online Briefing Session to learn more!

About Construction Management Awards

The 4th Construction Management Awards [CMA] is set to open for nominations. Organized by the Hong Kong Institute of Construction Managers [HKICM], it recognizes and showcases the effort and achievements of Hong Kong construction management teams and practitioners. It helps maintain and strengthens the highest standards of professionalism and competitiveness in the construction industry.

There are more than 1,000 construction projects in Hong Kong per year, and we aim to attract all talents from the city to promote professionalism in construction management. The awards are open to individuals and teams with the profession.
