Quality Building Award 2022

New Award Category: Temporary Buildings

The Quality Building Award 2022 (QBA 2022) is now officially open for nomination of the new Award category – Temporary Buildings. The new Award aims to recognize temporary buildings, which offer the fluidity that allows them to embrace societal changes and adapt to the requirements of our ever-changing world.

About the New Award Category – Temporary Buildings

Temporary buildings are made to use for a limited time given their purpose or the land status. They can be constructed using short-lived materials that may also be repurposed after deconstruction, and such temporary buildings can include but are not limited to those made for public entertainment, temporary occupation, or iconic representation during a specific event.

Nomination Requirement

- Nominated building is designed and constructed for temporary purpose and/or constructed of short-lived materials.
- Nominated new building serves one or several functional uses, such as residential, commercial, institutional, and for exhibition & leisure purposes.

Nomination Submission Deadline: 9 June 2022
