

Work Safety Alert Pressed by Topped Gypsum Boards

- 1. Date of Accident : November 2025
- 2. Place of Accident : An open-air car park
- 3. Summary :

While handling a stack of gypsum boards stored vertically in a car park, a male worker was crushed when the boards suddenly toppled onto him. He was rushed to hospital and passed away later on the same day.

4. Work Safety Alert for Proprietors / Employers:

To ensure the occupational safety of workers engaged in handling gypsum boards, proprietors/ employers should provide and maintain a safe system of work, including but not limited to the following precautionary measures:

- ensuring that the gypsum boards are stored, stacked or handled on a flat, level and rigid surface;
- appointing a competent supervisor to oversee the handling operation, including ensuring the stability of the boards and the use of suitable mechanical aids, to effectively eliminate or mitigate all risks;
- ensuring that gypsum boards are properly secured and stabilised to prevent them from toppling in the course of work;
- setting up and implementing an effective monitoring and control system for handling of gypsum boards; and
- providing all workers involved with the necessary safety information, instruction and training, and ensuring that they are familiar with the relevant safe work procedures and safety measures.

5. Reference¹ :

- A Guide to Part VII of the Occupational Safety and Health Regulation \(Manual Handling Operations\)
- Safe Systems of Work
- Five Steps to Risk Assessment
- Five Steps to Information, Instruction and Training

DISCLAIMER

This Work Safety Alert (“the Alert”) is issued at the earliest possible opportunity after a serious accident with a view to drawing the attention of interested parties to the general safety precautionary measures necessary to protect people engaging in similar work activities. The material contained in the Alert constitutes general guidance only. It does not reduce, limit, or replace, any legal obligations upon any person to comply with any statutory duties under relevant legislation. Users such as Managers and Supervisors should make their own evaluation of the information contained in the Alert to determine if it can be applied to their own situations and practices. The Labour Department does NOT accept any responsibilities for any loss or damage resulting from the use of or failure to use of the information on the Alert.

Note: The material contained in the Alert is not exhaustive, and will be supplemented/ adjusted where necessary if more relevant information comes to light.

¹ Click to view documents