The theme, 'Safeguarding Homes: Surveyors for Building Maintenance and Community Safety', reflects our commitment to addressing the growing importance of building maintenance and repair in Hong Kong's built environment. This conference brings together professionals from various sectors to share insights and explore practical approaches to building upkeep, lifecycle management and risk prevention. Through collaborative dialogue and shared expertise, we aim to highlight the professional role of surveyors in safeguarding building quality, enhancing maintenance standards and strengthening community safety for a more resilient and liveable city.
